A comic panel with a light blue background. At the bottom, a character with dark skin and brown hair is shown from the chest up, looking distressed with a pained expression. To their right, a woman with blonde hair tied in a bun and wearing a purple shirt is looking at them with a surprised or concerned expression. Three speech bubbles originate from the distressed character. The first bubble, at the top left, contains the text 'JUST KILL ME ALREADY' in red, all-caps, slightly irregular font. The second bubble, in the middle left, contains 'omg spare me this suffering!' in red, lowercase, slightly irregular font. The third bubble, at the bottom left, contains 'SC4' in white, all-caps, slightly irregular font. A fourth speech bubble, on the right side, originates from the woman and contains 'U - UHM...' in red, all-caps, slightly irregular font. The overall style is simple and cartoonish.
